

James
Hattem

WWW.JAMESHATEM.COM

After embarking on extensive tours throughout the Northeast, Southeast, and Northwest regions of North America, James showcased his musical prowess with over 150 self-booked shows in the previous year alone. Currently, he graces the stage every weekend in Nashville, TN, steadily cultivating a dedicated fanbase and captivating audiences of all generations.

Hatem's musical journey reached new heights in 2022 when he had the honor of opening for the legendary rock band Kansas during both The Absence of Presence tour and their momentous 50th Anniversary tour. His performances garnered widespread acclaim from the enthusiastic fans in attendance. In a pivotal moment in 2020, Hatem was selected as the lead guitarist to launch Epiphone's innovative new line from Gibson.

James currently holds a monthly residency at the Acme Feed & Seed, nestled in the heart of Downtown Nashville. Here, he introduces a new guest each month, offering a platform for artists to showcase their distinctive sounds, share compelling stories, and enrapture the Nashville crowd.
